CHILDREN’S BOOK LIST
Compiled by the NHFA Education Committee

BOOKS USING ANIMALS AND NATURE TO TALK ABOUT DEATH [for children up to age 12]

- Badger’s Parting Gifts
  Susan Varley
  Badger’s friends are saddened by his passing, but come to realize that everyone lives on through their gifts of kindness and the happy memories that remain.

- The Dead Bird
  Margaret Wise Brown
  An excellent handling of the subject of death, by the author of Goodnight Moon, in which all young children have a natural interest. [ages 4-8]

- Our Tree Named Steve
  Alan Zwiebel
  There are many wonderful messages in this little book. The meaning of family, the joys of nature and being involved with her, the ability of dealing with loss and the lesson of hope and renewal.

- When Dinosaurs Die
  Laura Krazny & Mark Brown
  The authors explain in simple language the feelings people may have regarding the death of a loved one and the ways to honor the memory of someone who has died.

- The 10th Good Thing About Barney
  Judith Viorst
  The authors explain in simple language the feelings people may have regarding the death of a loved one and the ways to honor the memory of someone who has died.

- Charlotte’s Web
  EB White
  The children’s classic about a spider who dies after saving the life of her friend Wilbur the pig.

BOOKS FOR CHILDREN ABOUT THE SERIOUSLY ILL AND TERMINALLY ILL

- There is a Rainbow behind Every Dark Cloud
  Gerald G Jampolsky
  11 children share their experiences with terminal illness and talk about coping with the idea of death.

- Help Me Say Goodbye
  Janis Silverman

- How to Help Children Through a Parent’s Serious Illness
  Kathleen McCue and RonBonn
  Clearly written and richly researched, this book is a true how-to manual, exploring specific scenarios and offering step-by-step advice. It is sensitive to the needs of different age groups, family situations, and types of illness.

- Someone I Love is Sick
  Kathleen McCue
  A customizable tool to use when talking with children ages 2-6 years old about a parent or grandparent who has cancer.
BOOKS FOR CHILDREN ABOUT A DEATH IN THE FAMILY

- Everett Anderson’s Goodbye
  Lucille Clifton
  Captures Everett’s conflicting emotions as he confronts the painful reality of his father’s death.

- Is Daddy Coming Back in a Minute?
  Elke Becker
  Explaining sudden death to preschool children in words they can understand. Beautifully illustrated and thoughtfully expressed. [ages 3-5]

- Missing Mommy
  Rebecca Cobb
  A well written and insightful tool for leading the very young through the five stages of grief. [ages 3-6]

- Molly’s Mom Died
  Margaret Holmes
  A child’s journey through grief explores feelings after a parent dies and includes a section for caregivers

- Am I Still a Sister?
  Alicia M. Sims
  Reflects the the child-wise discoveries made by 11 year old Allie after her baby brother dies.

- Where’s Jess?
  Marvin Johnson
  For siblings who’ve had a baby or sibling die at home

- The Empty Place
  Roberta Temes
  A nine year old boy explores his feelings and finds positive ways to deal with the loss of his older sister.

- Felipa and the Day of the Dead
  Birte Muller
  Translated from Spanish, grandmother (Abuelita) has died and Felipa is looking everywhere for her soul. The day of the Dead rituals and celebrations help her understand.

- Annie and the Old One
  Miska Miles
  An Indian child resorts to extremes to prevent her dear grandmother from dying

- My Grandson Lew
  Charlotte Zolotow
  Models grieving for children and helps them to articulate what they would like to remember. [ages 4-8]

BOOKS FOR CHILDREN ABOUT THE DEATH OF A FRIEND

- A Song For Cecilia Fantini
  Cynthia Astor
  A moving account of a child’s reconciliation with death and a stirring tale of ritual healing

- A Bridge to Tarabithia
  Katherine Paterson
  A ten year old boy learns how irrevocably one’s life can change in the course of one short day. A heartwarming book about being different, friendship and loss.

- A Taste of Blackberries
  Doris Buchanan-Smith
  A book about a boy who must come to grips with the tragedy of losing his best friend

BOOKS FOR TEENS

- I Will Never Forget You
  Emilio Parga
  A writing journal for teens grieving the death of someone they love

- Straight Talk About Death for Teenagers
  Earl Grollman
  How to Cope With Losing Someone You Love Advice and answers to questions teens are likely to ask

- When Death Walks In: For Teenagers Facing Grief
  Mark Scrivani
  Looks at ways of facing grief, including information about going back to school, dreams, and friends

Updated 2-9-15
• I Will Remember You
  Laura Dower
  What to do When Someone You Love Dies. Personal stories from teens about death and life, advice from a renowned grief counselor, and dozens of creative exercises to help teens move through pain and sorrow

• Fire in My Heart, Ice in my Veins: A Journal for Teenagers Experiencing Loss
  Enid Samuel-Traisman
  A place where teens can tell the person who died what they want them to know using their creativity to work through the grieving process

• Weird is the New Normal When Teenagers Grieve
  Jenny Lee Wheeler
  A self help book for teenagers written by an actively grieving teen.

BOOKS FOR CHILDREN DEALING WITH UNEXPECTED LOSS SUICIDE/HOMICIDE/TRAUMA

• When Something Terrible Happens
  Marge Heegaard
  Using the art process to teach children who have witnessed or experienced a traumatic event some basic concepts about trauma

• A Terrible Thing Happened
  Margaret Holmes
  A gently told and tenderly illustrated story for children who have witnessed any kind of violent or traumatic episode, including physical abuse, school or gang violence, accidents, deaths, homicide, suicide and natural disasters such as floods or fire.

• Someone I Love Died by Suicide: A story for Child Survivors and Those Who Care for Them
  Doreen T. Cammarata
  For adult caregivers to read to surviving children following a suicidal death, helping them to recognize normal grieving symptoms and identify healthy interventions to cope with their loss.

• Reactions: a Workbook for Grieving Kids
  Allison Salloum
  An excellent workbook for children working through grief and loss after a violent crime to a family member or self.

GENERAL BOOKS FOR CHILDREN ABOUT GRIEF

• The Boy Who Didn’t Want to be Sad
  Rob Goldblatt
  A simple yet profound message about facing sadness to have a happy and fulfilled life.

• The Invisible String
  Patricia Karst
  A gentle story that illustrates that we are still connected by love even after someone dies. This would be good for anyone who has suffered a loss through death or separation.

• Michael Rosen’s Sad Book
  Michael Rosen
  Sophisticated and honest book on loss that can help children understand adult grief. It explores the experience of sadness as part of the human condition and shows children that they are not alone. [ages 8-adult]